

Exercise: UDP Uppercase

Implement a UDP based Client/Server application where a client can contact a server to convert a string to uppercase. The client sends a datagram to the server including a string to convert and the server sends to the client the string converted to uppercase